Long Lisle Gloves, $1.10

Regular Price $1.50, pair

Seven hundred pairs of fine silk-finish, black and white lisle gloves came to us under circumstances that will allow us to sell the gloves at $1.10 a pair.

We have sold the same gloves at $1.50 a pair, which is the price everybody else is now getting, and good values they are at the latter figures—far better, in fact, than last year's silk-finished lisle at $1.50.

16-button length, mousquetaire effect; all sizes; $1.10 pair.

Men's Negligee Shirts, 50c

If there's ever been as good shirts made to sell for 50c we've never seen them, and it's our aim to get the best, as we're not buying merchandise this season simply because it was best last year.

We demand progressive excellence.

White madras and all-over patterns, white with plaided fronts; white grounds with black figures, dots and stripes; also plain blue madras.

Men are telling us that these 50c garments are better than they've been paying $1 for in some stores.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway will bring in a special train from the West Monday morning, carrying the Decatur cadets, of Decatur, Ill., who are on their way to the Jamestown Exposition. The special will reach here at 7:30 A. M. and the party will go down the James on the Potomac.

Captain C. W. Westbury, of the Southern, is receipt of a letter from a South Carolina veteran, who attended the late reunion. The letter was written to thank Captain Westbury for courtesies and to praise the service of the Southern, which lauded so many of the old soldiers. In conclusion, the veteran speaks in glowing terms of Richmond, saying:

"There were two points prominently noticeable to a stranger, and they were of such a nature as to commend themselves. One was the conductors of your street cars, the uniform courtesy of the carmen, and the number of large and comfortable cars, and the other was the number of strangers, who always received prompt and civil replies, and the other was likewise evidenced by the police force, who all seemed anxious to aid in service and attention. I am afraid, however, with many of us this will be the last 'On to Richmond.'"

The steamers on the York River Line have made a change in their meal regulations. Instead of serving table d'hôte breakfast as heretofore, they will hereafter serve cold breakfast at prices ranging from 25 to 60 cents, but the old-time 75-cent dinner will be served as heretofore. This will suit the traveling public better, perhaps, as the majority of them prefer only a light breakfast.

The filing of the mortgage securing the $25,000,000 eight per cent. bonds of the Virginia Railway Company reveals the scale on which that new sort of road is being capitalized. The authorized mortgage debt amounts to nearly $75,000,000 per mile on the 442 miles of main line now under construction. The Virginia Railway has authorized capital stock of $35,000,000, and there is a further authorized issue of $10,000,000 five per cent. bonds on the terminal properties at Sewall's Point, so that the total authorized capitalization of the project amounts to $75,000,000.

In a statement of operations for nine months to March 31st, submitted to the stock exchange in connection with the listing of $10,000,000 Atlantic, Knoxville and Cincinnati Division 1 per cent. coupon bonds, the Louisville and Nashville shows earnings of $36,125,521, operating expenses of $26,438,536, and net for nine months of $9,779,985.

KNOWS NOTHING OF PROSECUTION

Eleanora "Cawley" is Desirous Now Only of Forgetting the Past.

MAY NOT COME INTO COURT

Mrs. Martin Not Responsible for Girl's Coming to Her Home. Will Not be Harassed.

Eleanora "Cawley" comfortably ensconced in her home with Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, No. 18 West Nineteenth Street, Manchester, refused to discuss further the circumstances of her mysterious life which culminated in her arriving at her present abode, and as far as she is personally concerned, the past is to be forgotten, and she is to her way into the brightening future unaided save by her new-found friends and with no thought now of former suffering and hardship and without regret that she is starting life anew.

Unless her early history be brought into the light of court investigation, which may probably not happen, her childhood days will always be shrouded in mystery, and she may never know who were her parents, or why they gave her into the care of others. But this is content to leave the matter over unpleasant memories, and her chief wish now is that others will know her only as Mrs. Martin, and forget the past, as she is trying to do.

To The Times-Dispatch reporter who called on her last night she had nothing to say, and she was not at all frequently discussed situation in which she has found herself, nor would Mr. and Mrs. Martin be drawn into any further discussion, having fired of their notoriety into which their names have been brought through motives which were never made known to them.

As far as they are concerned, the matter is ended. Miss Eleanora is a boarder in their home, though she has all the comforts of a home, and the family they care for her as they would for one of their own children, and there the matter begins and ends with them. One of the Manchester policemen who is thoroughly familiar with all the details of the young girl's earlier life, says that he knows the reason of her coming to Mrs. Martin's home, and that Mrs. Martin is in no way responsible for Eleanora's coming to her. That is all. Not was Mrs. Martin the one who reported the matter to the police. This was done even before she had come to her home, and without her knowledge.

This same man is authority for the statement that Eleanora has done nothing to warrant the charges against her, and that she is not at all responsible for the matter. Mrs. Martin is a woman of good character, and she is not at all responsible for the matter. This was done even before she had come to her home, and without her knowledge.

GENERAL RAISE IN RENTS.
Desirable Residence Properties to Be 10 to 15 Per Cent. Higher.
At least one real estate agent has sent out formal notices announcing an increase of rental figures from and after September 1st. The increase is 10 or 12 per cent. in most cases, and is general, so far as this firm is concerned. It is said that other agents will take the same action, and that rents will be raised from 10 to 15, and in some cases 20 per cent. generally.

One Man Is Fined and Other Was Punished by Officer.
Pleasant Wilson and William McWilliams (colored) were arrested Thursday night for sleeping on the sidewalk. They were found in a pouring rain. McWilliams was given thirty days in jail. Wilson, when arrested, showed fight, and it required a few blows from the police to induce him to go to the station. Justice Crutchfield thought he had had enough punishment, and he was discharged.

Y. M. C. A. WORK.
Interesting Figures in Annual Report of State Committees.

The last annual report of the State executive committee of the Virginia Young Men's Christian Association, covering a period from February 1, 1906, to January 31, 1907, shows that there are now fifty-five associations in Virginia, with a total membership of 9,601, of whom 1,269 were serving on committees. There were thirty-two reading rooms, 212 volumes in libraries and 381 pupils in educational classes.

The total expenditure of the association for the year was $182,247.16. The value of furniture, libraries and so on, was about $86,500. In Bible classes, $211 men enrolled, and 132,064 men and boys—exclusive of students—attended meetings during the year. Thirty religious meetings were held each week with an average attendance of 187. Nine hundred forty-two converts were reported. A total of 181 untiring with churches.

The city work shows Richmond raised $28,000 for the summer, Lyons completed a building worth $85,000. Petersburg sold its poorly-adapted building and, after paying a heavy mortgage, built a new one. A new building, Norfolk started the year of 1907 with $40,000 as a nucleus to put up a new building, and other cities working hard to do the same. A special notice is given to the fact that Norfolk has a gift of $300,000 for a navy association building in Norfolk.

DENTAL BOARD ADJOURNS.
Completes the Work of Examination and Elects Officers.

At a meeting of the Virginia dental examining board held at Murphy's Hotel Tuesday night, with the president, Dr. H. W. Campbell, of Suffolk, in the chair, the following members were present: Dr. R. H. Walker, Norfolk; Dr. J. P. Stiff, Fredericksburg; Dr. B. Bridgford, Richmond; Dr. R. E. A. Peepers, Dr. J. A. Calvin, Charlottesville.

There were thirty-three applicants before the board this year, about seven of the number examined last year. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Dr. H. W. Campbell, president; Dr. R. H. Walker, secretary and treasurer; Dr. J. P. Stiff, assistant secretary.

Dr. Campbell was elected a delegate to the American Association of Dental Examiners which meets at Minneapolis the last of July.

As soon as all papers are examined and passed successfully, will receive official certificates.

The board adjourned to meet in Richmond on Tuesday, June 18th, 1907, or at the call of the president.

GOVERNOR MAY BE TAMMANY ORATOR

Will Return from Exposition To-Day and Decide This Matter and Others.

CLEMENTS IS ON THE RACK

Alexandria County Superintendent to Answer to Board.

At the executive department yesterday it was announced that Governor Swanson would probably return to the city to-day, but he is not expected to remain here long, as he has arranged to remain with Mrs. Swanson at the Jamestown Exposition the greater portion of the time between now and July 1st.

Upon his return, the Governor will take up and dispose of a number of official matters that have accumulated since he left the city, but that have not demanded immediate consideration.

His Excellency is yet undecided as to whether he will be able to accept Congressman Bourke Cockran's invitation to make the chief address at the annual powwow of the Tammany Society on July 4th. He is much inclined to accept, but pressing engagements previously made may prevent.

Great sachem of the society, and is anxious that his friend and former congressional colleague shall make what is known as the "long talk" at the celebration.

To Hear Clements.
The State Board of Education has been called to meet at the offices of the department on Monday night, June 17th, to make up the Alexandria county case to elect a division superintendent for Chesterfield county to succeed the late W. A. Blankenship, and to transact other business of more or less importance.

The case from Alexandria county involves the official record of Division Superintendent James E. Clements.

At the last meeting of the board Mr. Clements was cited to appear before the body to show cause, if any he can, why he should not be removed from office for failure to send in his reports to the department, as required by law. It is understood that in the meanwhile most of the delayed papers have been filed, but this may not suffice to satisfy the board, as they are not filed within the time prescribed by law.

At any rate, the board will go into the hearing, and give the delinquent officer an opportunity to say how it all happened.

As to Road Building.
Captain P. St. Julien Wilson, State Highway Commissioner, was in his office at the Capitol yesterday, having returned from a trip to Norfolk in connection with the exposition boulevard.

"The work on the road from Norfolk to the Exposition grounds is about 75 per cent. complete," said Captain Wilson, "and it would probably have been finished except for the continued rains. It is now up to one of the prettiest driveways in the country, however, and will be an ornament to that section when it is completed. We are nearly through with the work on the other road from Williamsburg to Jamestown, and this, too, will be a beautiful piece of highway."

"How are you getting along with the general scheme of road-building in the State?" was asked.

"We have just let a contract for twenty-one miles in Amherst county, and have advertised for bids for building three miles in Pittsylvania. The people are waking up on the subject of good roads, and the new laws on the subject are growing in favor each day."

Affairs at V. M. I.
Superintendent of Public Instruction Joseph D. Eggleston, Jr., will leave to-day for his home in Prince Edward county. He will go from there to attend a meeting of the board of visitors of the Virginia Military Institute on Monday. He declared last night that he had no idea who would be chosen superintendent of the institute to succeed General Scott Shipps.

Mr. DeWitt to Wed.
Cards are out for the coming marriage of Miss Mollie Levin to former Deputy United States Marshall Sam Bondit.

The date of the event has not yet been decided.

DEFECTIVE WORK.
Just as an intelligent detective sets himself to discover the identity of the perpetrator of a crime, so the chemist, Mr. N. M. Northrup, of St. Paul's church, Mason, Ga., officiating. Special celebration of the Holy Communion at the A. S. M. anniversary of the first celebration in the church at Jamestown three hundred years ago on third Sunday after Trinity.
